Weaving Worship

March | Liberation

March's themes were crafted by the UUAA Worship Team, with creative input from the people of our community (through the monthly order of service insert available each month). Special thanks to Sara, Lorelle, Victor, John, Ronda, Vilma, Els, Ethel, Jim, and Catherine. Your voices make a difference in our community's spiritual growth.

Like Everybody's Watching

Annual YRUU (Young Religious Unitarian Universalists) Service

In the age of information, how can we know what information should be shared or kept private? Can we even control what part of our lives are public anymore?

Can taking control of our privacy contribute to our collective liberation?
Join our high school YRUU students as they share their wisdom on privacy in the age of social media.

For Your Calendar

Diaper Drive * All of March

Take part in the March Diaper Drive to benefit families in need in Washtenaw County. Look for the collection box in the main entry area in front of the office.
Diapers from preemie up to size 6 and wipes are needed. This drive is sponsored by UUAA Challenging Racism Group to benefit Washtenaw County

Questions? Contact Kathy McLean at jdkamclean@comcast.net.

An Indigenous Peoples' History of the United States * Sunday, March 1

Challenging Racism Group is offering an opportunity to discuss the book An Indigenous Peoples' History of the United States by Roxanne Dunbar-Ortiz. There are copies in the UUAA office to borrow.

This important book is being read across the country by members of many congregations. Join us from 1:00pm to 3:00pm in the Jackson Chapel as we explore the colonization of Indigenous lands, expansion of the US at the expense of Indigenous people, Indigenous resistance to colonization, and current work to assert sovereignty.

What are responsive actions our Unitarian Universalist faith requires of us?

These discussions lay a foundation for work that will be undertaken at General Assembly (the international gathering of UUs) in Providence, RI, June 24-28.

Questions? Contact Kathy McLean at jdkamclean@comcast.net.

Memory Loss Caregiver Support Group * Wednesday, March 4

The Memory Loss Caregiver Support Group, sponsored by the UUAA Pastoral Care Team in partnership with the Alzheimer's Association, meets regularly the first Wednesday of each month from 3:00pm to 4:30pm in the David Room. It is a drop-in group, open to both members of the congregation and the larger community. We encourage congregants who may know a person giving care to someone with memory loss, to let them know that they are welcome to join this support group.

A support group offers caregivers, family members, and friends of people with memory loss the opportunity to ask questions, share stories, give and receive comfort, and gain practical knowledge. A confidential, positive setting for sharing experiences is known to be an important factor in how well one copes with caregiver stress. Questions? Contact Joan Burleigh at joburleigh@aol.com, Sandy Kunkle at sandykunkle@gmail.com, or Meredith Ley at meredithl888@gmail.com.

Restorative Justice | Osher Lifelong Learning Institute * Starting March

Please join Carolyn Madden and Kathie Gourlay for a three-week course:

How Criminal Justice Authorities Foster Mass Incarceration and How They Can End It

March 4, 11, and 18 from 10:00am to noon at UUA, room TBA
Fee: $20

During these three weeks, we will examine the role of criminal justice authorities such as prosecutors, judges, and the courts. Please register with OLLI at www.oli-umich.org, or join us on the first day of classes.

Questions? Contact Carolyn Madden at cgmadden@gmail.com.

Humanist Group * Mondays and/or Thursdays, March 5, 9, 19, 23

Are You a Humanist?

Do you believe that we must decide for ourselves what the meaning of our lives is? Do you believe that humans, rather than a supreme being, define morality and ethics? Do you believe that God is created in humans' image? If you answer yes to any of these questions, or if you are unsure of the answers, then consider joining this group that is searching for answers to these questions.

Humanism has a long history in our congregation. A lively group of humanists has been meeting here for about 20 years. The current group of about 20 members gathers to discuss topics relating to humanist philosophy, theology, morals, ethics, reasoning, science, and more.

The Monday Evening Humanists discuss the same issues, with some of the same participants, and sometimes with the same discussion leaders as the Thursday Afternoon Humanists. The topics will be just as varied and lively.

All are welcome at either or both of these meetings.

Thursdays, March 5 and 19 from 2:00pm to 4:00pm
Mondays, March 9 and 23 from 7:00pm to 8:30pm

Currently 90 people are subscribed to our email list, receiving interesting articles and commentary, as well as notices about upcoming meetings. Contact Hal to subscribe to our list.

For more information about the Monday group, contact Hal Breidenbach at hal@breidenbach.net.

For more information about the Thursday group, contact Bruce Gibb at blgibb@aol.com.

Women's Retreat Workshop Proposal Deadline * Saturday, March 7

The UUAA Womyn's Retreat is a collaborative effort of wonderful volunteers. The committee is now calling for the next wave of volunteers - potential workshop presenters - to submit proposals for 90-minute workshops that fit within the theme "Self Compassion: Discovering Joy." This year's Womyn's Retreat will be held October 2-4, 2020. All proposals will be reviewed by the full committee. Submitting a proposal does not guarantee that your session will be selected. Send your proposal(s) of approximately 300 words by March 7 to Retreat Co-Chair Michele Zmich at zmich@umich.edu.

BIGsing* Saturday & Sunday, March 14 & 15

Have you wanted to join a choir but cannot make the long-term time commitment? Lend your voice to this one-weekend choir. Join us for the annual BIGsing.

Gather for the BIGsing Rehearsal all day Saturday, March 14 and perform in a concert the next day! If you would like to participate as a singer, register now at <https://forms.gle/JtPcJjRXPovcu7C88>. Registration will be capped at 150 singers.

The BIGsing concert is on Sunday, March 15 at 4:00pm in the Sanctuary.

Our special guest this year is singer, songwriter, vocal activist MelanieDeMore: <http://www.melaniemore.com/bio/>.

Questions? Contact theresa rohlck at bigsing@uuaa.org.

Mothers and Others * Saturdays, March 14 & 28

Mothers and Others | A Group for Caregivers of Young Children

Join our group for caregivers of young children for fellowship, support, and friendship! Mothers, fathers, grandparents, foster parents, and others are all welcome to join! We typically meet for playgroups in the UUAA nursery on the 2nd and 4th Saturdays of the month at 10:15am. For details, join our email list by emailing Charlene Mangi at Charlene.Mangi@gmail.com.

Equal Exchange Talk * Thursday, March 19

Equal Exchange (EE) in Conversation
6:00pm-7:30pm in the Social Hall

"In the wider food system, corporations control everything from seeds to supply and prices. For 33 years, Equal Exchange has been working to build alternative models that challenge the status quo..." Join EE's worker-owners to discuss our community's stake in our food supply. Coffee, tea, and snacks will be served.

Co-hosted by the Mindful Eating Team and the UUSC Coffee Project

RSVP to Bethany at bkmcginnis@equalexchange.coop or 508-427-4217

UUAA Annual Auction "Evening in Paris" * Saturday, March 21

"Evening in Paris"
Annual Auction

Bonjour!

We hope to be saying "Bonjour" to you again right here at UUAA on March 21 from 4:00pm to 7:00pm for the congregation's annual auction with a theme of "An Evening in Paris." March 21 is, appropriately enough, National French Bread Day.

We will be selling tickets and recruiting volunteers in the Social Hall at our table during Sunday Social Hour until March 15. This year, young adults (21-39) attend at a reduced ticket price of only $20! The standard tickets are $35, and if you would like to support our young adults in attending, purchase a "Gold" ticket for $50. Your admission includes heavy hors d'oeuvres from Movable Feast, a drink ticket, and entertainment. Childcare is also available at no cost!

What will there be to bid on? We're just getting started with donations, but one we expect to be a big hit is our own Dr. Glen Thomas Rideout performing at a generous congregant's lovely home overlooking the Huron River. That will be formidable!

In addition to musicians playing throughout the UUAA building this year, we will have DJ Scott Bell of Primetime Entertainment. So bring your dancing shoes (and of course your beret). The live auction will once again be emceed by our own Beth and Bob Hospadaruk. Finally, we plan once again to have a photo booth. Ooo là là!

If you'd like more information, check out uuaa.org/auction (which includes a link to buy tickets), our Facebook page, or email us at auction@uuaa.org. If you'd like to volunteer sign up online at <https://www.signupgenius.com/go/70A0D44ADA922A2FF2-2020> or see us at our Social Hour table.

Merci beaucoup!

Membership Signing * Sunday, March 22

If you have completed the Introduction to Our Faith workshop, you are eligible to join the First Unitarian Universalist Congregation of Ann Arbor (UUAA) as a member.

We will have our next membership signing Sunday, March 22 at 10:50am (between services) in the Sanctuary. At this gathering, you will sign the membership book that has the rosters and signatures of UUAA members dating back to 1867. It is quite a meaningful symbol of UUAA history and your part in it. If you would like to be included in this signing, please contact the Welcome Ministries Coordinator Hannah Hotchkiss at Hannah@uuaa.org.

At or before the time of signing, Hannah will need the completed enrollment forms found in the Membership Enrollment Packet that was handed out in your Intro to Our Faith class. Included in that packet are the following forms:

- Enrollment Form
- Pledge Form for 2020: If you have already filled out a Pledge Form for 2020, please note that on the top of your Enrollment Form. Please know that finances should never be an obstacle to joining. There is a waiver box on the form.
- Interest and Talents Survey
- Personal Bio Form - 90 words or fewer
- Photo Release Form

If you no longer have your Membership Enrollment Packet, we will make packets available during Social Hour in the Newcomer Welcome Room, or the forms can be emailed to you.

If the March 22 signing does not work for your schedule, let Hannah know and she can put you on a contact list to be alerted of future signings.

Questions? Contact Hannah Hotchkiss at Hannah@uuuaa.org.

On the Horizon

Senior Luncheon * Wednesday, April 22

Accessibility and Inclusion Ministry (AIM) is hosting a luncheon for seniors on Wednesday, April 22 at 11:30am in the Social Hall. We hope you can join us for socializing and lunch.

Immediately following, at 1:00pm, there will be a presentation in Fahs Chapel by Jim Mangi, "Becoming a Dementia-Friendly Community."

This presentation is co-sponsored by the Memory Support Team at UUAA. We hope you can attend. There is no need for a reservation, but you can help us plan by signing up in the Social Hall at the Involvement Table, or email Barbaraoliverhall@gmail.com.

Becoming a Dementia-Friendly Community * Wednesday, April 22

On Wednesday, April 22, 2020 the Memory Loss Caregiver Support Group, Pastoral Care, and Accessibility and Inclusion Ministry (AIM) are co-sponsoring a workshop, Becoming a Dementia-Friendly Community, from 1:00pm to 2:30pm, in the Fahs Chapel. This program will be presented by James Mangi, a long-time dementia/Alzheimer's advocate.

This workshop will follow the Senior Luncheon, to which all are invited. We also invite other UU folks to learn about this work and help us create a dementia-friendly faith community. If you have any questions, you may contact Joan at joburleigh@aol.com, Sandy at sandykunkle@gmail.com, or Meredith at meredithl888@gmail.com.

Introduction to Our Faith * Saturday, April 25

Join us on Saturday, April 25 from 10:00am-2:30pm for an introduction to Unitarian Universalism for newcomers as well as long-time congregants. This class is a prerequisite for congregants ready to sign the membership book.

Learn about UU history, how to get involved, finding your calling, and the rights and responsibilities of membership.

Register online or fill out a paper registration form found on the Involvement Table or in the Newcomer Welcome Room during Social Hour. The registration deadline is Sunday, April 19. If you are in need of childcare for this event, we

News and Announcements

Alpha House

UUA's Alpha House Host Week is April 13-19

Alpha House is a shelter for families temporarily experiencing homelessness in Washtenaw County.

UUA needs 90 volunteers to shop, provide food, serve meals, supervise children's activities, and make reminder calls for our next host week. Up to $400 is needed to cover supplies. An online volunteer signup can be found at <https://tinyurl.com/AH0413>, or you can sign up at the Alpha House Table during Sunday Social Hours March 22 through April 12. For questions about how you can help, contact AlphaHouse@uuaa.org.

In Gratitude

A great big "Thank You" to the many people who donated meals, money, and/or time to the February 3-9 host week. It was a fun and challenging week as we met new Alpha House staff members, and one of the resident families had the flu. It all worked out, and the meals were served as planned. Without your help, Alpha House would not be able to do all it does for our neighbors experiencing homelessness in Washtenaw County.

Thanks to: Delphine Benard, Louis Benard, Ilene Beninson, Sandy Breck, Lara Brown, Kate Burkhardt, Marcia Cameron, Carol Cramer, Susan David, Dee Dishon, KT Doud, Audra Eddy, Barron Evans, Sandy Eyl, Diane Fead, Mike Fry, Barb Gales, Candace Gilet, Amy Grant, Joe Griffith, Gwen Guthrie, Pat Herbst, Carli Hildebrandt, Beth Hospadaruk, Laura Johnstone, Emmanouil Kioupakis, Monica Kmetz Cochran, Eric Kramp, Mary Locey, Arika Lycan, Angela Menegay, Kirsten Mogbo, Cathy Muha, Mike Muha, Quincy Northrup, Edward Norton, Susan Randall, Pamela Reister, Kat Roemmich, Mark Sanderson, Mike Schroer, Karl Sikkenga, Sandy Simon, Brandy Sinco, Elinore Sommerfeld, Mary Lynn Stevens, Carey Swanson, Julie Tanguay, Phyllis Tera, Jane Theriault, Spencer Thomas, and Cathy Whitaker.

Special thanks to the UUA 7th grade class for leading Valentine's Day events with children living at Alpha House.

Ed Lynn Answers Your Financial Questions

I promised at the Congregational Meeting in January that I would answer financial questions that you emailed me. Here are the questions I received along with the answers.

What is in Worship and Music Expenses ($23,172 in 2019)?

About one third of this is for guest performers. About half of the total can be divided roughly equally for supplies (e.g., sheet music for a large choir), guests in the pulpit, and music conferences and workshops. Most of the rest is for piano tuning and equipment.

What does Other Employee-Related Expenses ($48,969) include?

Most (60%) of this is professional expense (10% of salary for ministers and lower amounts for other employees), 19% is for employee and volunteer recognition (e.g., traditional Christmas Eve dinner for choir and volunteers), 14% was for the installation of Rev. Manish, and the remainder is our Workers Compensation assessment.

What is included in Fundraising ($42,588) and Other Income ($16,334)?

Fundraising is primarily the auction (72%) and the scrip program (20%), with coffee and book sales the remainder.

Other Income is primarily money thrown in the donation baskets during Sunday coffee hour (65%), with the rest being memorial and tribute gifts (24%) and other odds and ends. For example, last year we received a notice about a class action suit against a firm sending junk faxes. I filled out the short web application, and received a $1,000 check, which was booked in Other Income.

What is the policy for bequest income?

One third of any bequest is used to prepay the mortgage principal, another third is used for capital expenses, and the last third is used at the Board's discretion, which in the last five years has also been for capital expenses.

What is the status of our mortgage?

After the last Comprehensive Campaign, we refinanced with a five-year commercial mortgage of $1,280,000 at 3.84%. As of February 20, 2020, we have paid down the principal to $997,856, a $282,144 reduction in less than four years. The principal should be slightly below $900,000 at maturity in May, 2021.

If you have other financial questions, please email Ed Lynn at ated@uuaa.org.

Sharing the Collection

Your Contributions Make a Difference!

The Sharing the Collection Committee is happy to share the good news: On February 2, we raised $2,577 for Peace Neighborhood Center.

Mark your calendar for these upcoming collections:

- March 8, to benefit SafeHouse Center.
- April 5, to benefit Unitarian Universalist Service Committee \(UUSC\)

Are you not able to attend services on the Sunday of Sharing the Collection? You can mail a check to UUAA, noting "Sharing the Collection" in the memo line.

Social Justice Council

The Social Justice Council (SJC) welcomes David Kohn to our membership. David joined the SJC this week for his first meeting and has agreed to be treasurer. The council is seeking two additional members at this time. We support the 20-plus social justice groups in this congregation in their efforts to provide our community with an awareness, education, and commitment toward making our community and our world a safer and more peaceful place. Please contact us for more information and plan to come to our roundtable discussion on engagement and leadership on Tuesday, April 28.

Questions? Contact Carolyn Madden at cgmadden@gmail.com or Connie McGuire at cmcguire@umich.edu, interim co-chairs of the Social Justice Council. Sally Preston, SJC Chair, is away until the end of March.

Unitarian Universalist Service Committee (UUSC)

The UUSC.org website gives us a rich understanding of the work of the organization in human rights advocacy. We need to stay informed, speak out, and contribute financially to strengthen their work and that of their partner organizations.

Partner organization No More Deaths, founded by members of the UU church of Tucson and supported by UUSC, carried water into Cabeza Prieta National Wildlife refuge in an attempt to help migrants get through this very dangerous area alive. They were arrested for violating refuge regulations. After years of litigation, Scott Warren was acquitted last November. Last month, criminal convictions of four other members of No More Deaths were overturned based on the argument that the government had violated their religious freedom rights.

A second issue covered on the website is the administration's Remain in Mexico Program (also called the Migrant Protection Program), in which those turned back at the border await immigration hearings in Mexico. In fact, it places nearly 60,000 people (including 16,000 children) in grave danger, creates a territory where they face incredible hardship, and provides little to no opportunity to be heard. Hit the contact button at the bottom of the article and BE HEARD for them.

Questions? Contact Quincy Northrup at qnorthrup@gmail.com.

Our Newest Members

Sy Ali

Sy Ali is a published poet currently studying International Affairs - Spanish while balancing a passion for audio production and teaching Astrology. Raised Muslim, Sy is excited to join the congregation and learn about different faiths and backgrounds.

Carolynne Jarvis & Bud Slining

Carolynne

I raised my two sons alone after my then husband returned from Vietnam and left. Bud Slining and I met about 15 years after that, marrying a year later. I have a B.S. (psychology) and an MSW from MSU and have worked in Child Protection, specializing in sexual abuse cases. I went on to run a CMH family sexual abuse treatment program and later led a statewide association of children's service agencies. Subsequently I directed a hospice in Lansing, joining it when they had three employees, going on to a gun violence prevention program from that.

We are retired, settling here in Ypsilanti three months ago, after having been full time RVer's for three years. My two sons and their families and Bud's daughter are all within easy visiting distance.

Bud

I am retired. I spent the last half of my career as a public health advisor with CDC. I worked in STD control in South Bronx, mid-Manhattan, Hollywood, East L.A., and Birmingham, AL. I developed one of the first AIDs counseling programs (Houston). My second career was as a secondary math teacher in alternative education (Lansing).

I'm a reader, an incorrigible book collector, a grandfather (best of all possible jobs), and a political junky.
